Let us lead your horse to better health and performance.

FASHIONS ON THE FIELD SA SERIES MID YEAR FINAL

Off the Track SA Series, Fashions on the Field event, has been introduced to selected horse shows during the last 2 show seasons, culminating in a half year final at the SHC Rising Star Show 2015.

Demand is increasing for this event with all ages competing with both men and women taking part. The class is essentially a smartest on parade event, attire most suitable for "a day at the races" The leaders must be wearing sensible closed in shoes and be leading a thoroughbred, "the ultimate accessory- the thoroughbred"

This class will be staged throughout SA in 2015/16 season with the 2016 final to be staged at the Morphettville Racecourse during the May Racing Carnival, judged by Miss World Australia, Olivia Stratton. To enter in the 2016 final, you must compete in at least one qualifier in the 2015/16 season.

We are getting alot of interest from shy people re this class, our advice is, frock up, front up and support this beautiful class to make it stronger and show just what can be done with retired thoroughbreds!

Fashion at The Races

Judging Criteria

- Appropriateness of the outfit for the particular event
- Originality and confidence
- Attention to detail with accessories
- Appreciation of current fashion trends
- Grooming and deportment
- Must be 18 or over

Appropriateness of the outfit for the particular event and conditions

- Entrants should dress with the weather in mind ie. if it's a Winter Cup, they should dress in appropriate clothing, not in a summer dress
- A dirt track and surrounds should also be considered, as footwear should be tailored to the conditions
- Entrants should not be dressed as if they are going to a nightclub – appropriate daywear is essential

Originality and confidence

- The entrant's personality and willingness to think outside the square should be obvious in their outfit
- They should look confident and happy in their outfit and wear something that makes them stand out in a positive manner

Attention to detail with accessories

- Ladies appropriate headwear is essential as is a men's tie or neckwear
- The overall picture must be considered in the judging – bag, shoes, jewellery and headwear
- The entire outfit must be complementary and fit together

Appreciation of current fashion trends

- Entrants must show that they're aware of current trends and interpret these trends in their own way
- Elements of their outfit should reflect current trends without losing the entrant's personal flair

Grooming and deportment

- Entrants will be judged according to not only their outfit, but also the way they carry themselves on stage
- Hair, makeup and behaviour on stage will also be considered by the judges

OFF THE TRACK SA SERIES FINAL

Saturday 7TH March 2015

5.00pm start (Approx.)

Saturday night is the Off the Track SA Series final.

We wish to invite you all along from 5.00pm to watch the States champions perform to music of their choice, under saddle, in hand and all under lights, judged by SA's finest in the Racing Industry and show horse judges.

We are so proud and are doing our bit for equine welfare along with our partners and sponsors. The demand is high for next years series with over 20 Agricultural shows already expressing interest. If you want your local AG show to have our event next season, get them to contact us at offthetracksaseries@gmail.com or if you would like to get amongst the fun why not volunteer to judge one of our events?

Expressions and availability to judge are now being taken for the new season email us at offthetracksaseries@gmail.com

Good luck to our champion retired racehorses this Saturday night and may the best thoroughbred win!

The Off the Track class is exclusive to retired racehorses and will be introduced at selected Agricultural Shows.

There are currently thousands of retired racehorses in Australia succeeding in their post racing lives as show horses and many have gone onto to win major shows including Grand Nationals, Royal Shows and Horse of the Years. Thoroughbreds are a highly sort after breed for equestrian disciplines because of their versatility and striking presence.

To be eligible to compete in the Off the Track class horses must have competed in an official trial or started in a race, locally, nationally or internationally.

This class is open to any height, weight, hunter or hack. Each prize winner to receive an Off the Track prize pack.

The winner of the final will win a $1,000 cash prize!

Once a horse has won an Off the Track class they will gain automatic entry into the Off the Track series final. Class winners will be ineligible to compete in the class for the rest of the season.

Temperament. Agility. Intelligence. Retraining retired Racehorses. The ideal equestrian athletes.
